FMHS Exam Schedule - June 2021

Learning and Recovery Time

- The following students will be REQUIRED to attend the Learning and Recovery Time (LRT):
 - For students planning to continue on the -1 pathway: any student below 65% is required to attend for intervention and active review*
 - For students anticipating to continue or move on to -2 courses: any student below 50% is required to attend for intervention and active review*
 - Any student with one or more missing assignments in the class that can still be completed*
 - Any student/parent who wishes to improve their mark and have additional learning time
 - Any student who a teacher indicates is required to be present during the learning and recovery time
 - *Teachers are able to provide exemptions for the above expectations based on individual student learning needs
 - All other students would not be required to be present during the Learning and Recovery Time
- Communication to Parents/Students Regarding LRT Time:
 - During the second week of June, teachers will identify all students that are required to attend LRT.
 - Teachers will email parents and students informing them that they have been identified as students who need to attend LRT.
- All students are required to be in attendance for the scheduled Exam or Class Time. It is at the teacher's discretion whether the course has a final exam, project, or some other summative assessment piece during this time.
